

Training and Placement cell

Training and Placement cell is working in the institute from its establishment. It performs the function to look forward for better job opportunities and thereafter placement of students in various Industrial, Service, sales, marketing, manufacturing organizations etc. all over the country. To cater the need of above sectors institute provide them scholar and skilled manpower as students. The department conducts the placement and training activities for students throughout the year. Apart it looks after the need of training for the staff and facilitates the training opportunities.

The cell is looked after by Training and Placement Officer under the able guidance of Principal and Head of all departments. Earlier for academic year 2025-2026 Shri.M.A.Afsar, Lecturer in Mechanical Engg. Now working as Training and Placement Officer.